VOL. XVI. NO. 92. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1915. ONE CENT

GOVERNOR AND PARTY TO VISIT CHARLEROI BRIEFLY NEXT WEEK

No Stop Will be Made Here, But Automobile Tourists Will go Over Streets

WORD COMES FROM CAPITAL

Brumbaugh Asked to Help Dedicate 19 School Buildings In Different Parts of State—To be Met at County Line by Citizens.

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh and his party of state tourists will pass through Charleroi next Tuesday afternoon about 2 or 2:30 o'clock, but will make no definite stop here. This is the information that has come from Harrisburg.

The state tour to be made by the governor and his party will begin next Monday and will continue six days. During that time the party expects to traverse about 1,000 miles of state road, touching practically every county in the state. The trip on Tuesday will be through several southwestern counties. Luncheon will be taken at Greensburg, and then in the afternoon the party will head toward Charleroi, to continue from here to Washington. The day's trip will end in Pittsburg, where the night will be spent.

Efforts have been made to have the governor and his party stop at practically every town he visits next week, but owing to the brief time to be given to the tour such will be impossible. He has been asked to participate in the dedication of 19 new school buildings, one of which is located at Hickory in this county.

In the governor's party there will be included from 20 to 40 automobiles, with from 100 to 200 persons. Reception committees will meet the party in every county.

A good sized delegation of representative citizens of Washington county will meet the governor and his party at the Belle Vernon bridge upon their entrance into Washington county. The Washington county citizens will not leave the party until they have seen them safely out of the county on Tuesday evening.

Just what course the governor and his tourists will take over the streets of Charleroi is not now known. State Highway Commissioner Cunningham was asked by a Charleroi man on a visit to the state capital this week, but he was unable at the time to state.

The governor's tour will have an historical importance, since it will be the first of the kind ever taken by any governor in this state, and probably the first of the kind ever taken by any governor of any state in the United States.

JUNEBUG RACER GOES INTO FENCE

Guy Woodward of Charleroi Has Narrow Escape on Washington Race Track

GREAT RACE BILL PREPARED

Speeding around the Arden track Thursday afternoon at a mile-a-minute clip, Guy Woodward's Ford racer crashed through the fence on the lower turn. Woodward, who is from Charleroi, escaped without a scratch and his machine was not badly damaged, the front axle being bent and the steering apparatus put out of commission. "I am too lucky to be hurt" declared the intrepid driver of the little speed car, which captured the free-for-all in the races held at Belle Vernon.

Woodward had his machine towed into a Washington garage and commenced to repair it. He will have it ready to enter in the races that are to be held on the Arden track Saturday afternoon. From early yesterday morning until last night the track was in constant use, most of the entrants in the motorcycle and automobile events being there to tune up and adjust their machines. The track will be closed today while the calcium chloride is being placed under the direction of D. C. Morrow, borough engineer.

DIVORCES GRANTED TO 25 MISMATED COUPLES

Court Hands Down Decrees—Desertion, Cruel and Barbarous Treatment Principal Causes Alleged For Separation

Twenty-five divorces were granted in decrees handed down by the court Thursday. They were all submitted to the court last week on the testimony taken and barbarous treatment and infidelity are the principal causes alleged for separation. In many cases the marriage was evidently contracted hastily and in such instances the contracting parties did not live long together. Drink, also, is the cause of much of the unhappiness set out in the testimony. The following from Charleroi and vicinity are granted absolute divorces:

Nora May Umbel, Bentleyville, from Noah H. Umbel, cruel and barbarous treatment, the husband being addicted to the drink habit.

Pearl L. Butler, Charleroi, from Charles A. Butler, desertion.

Teodoska Zabyega, Charleroi from Andy Zabyega, desertion.

George Landrin from Mary Landrin desertion.

Elizabeth R. Smaller, Ellsworth, from John Smaller, impotency and cruel and barbarous treatment.

Martha Jane Durst, New Eagle, from Henry Durst, desertion.

Julia Leukevihc, Monongahela from Peter Leukevihc, cruel and barbarous treatment.

Solomon Jones, Charleroi, from Frances Wells Jones, infidelity.

Garnett Johnstan, Charleroi, from William A. B. Johnston, desertion and non-support.

Harry R. Boyd, Donora, from Bertha Snook Boyd, desertion.

Edna May Shirk, Donora, from Charles Edward Shirk, cruel and barbarous treatment.

Robert McKissick, Charleroi, from Ruth McKissick, the libellant discovered that the respondent had a lawful husband living at the time she married the libellant.

Edith Jeannette McCandless, Monongahela, from James McCandless, desertion.

Fannie Priscilla Arnold, Ellsworth, from Chester Irwin Arnold, infidelity.

PITTSBURG STEEL COMPANY REPORT SHOWS AN INCREASE

Much has been said about the gradual return of prosperity but it takes figures in the end to clinch the argument and the annual report of the Pittsburg Steel company for the fiscal year just ended gives positive information that business is not only "picking up," but actually booming. The annual directors' report of the Pittsburg Steel company issued has just been received by stockholders.

The report shows an increase in the net profits of the company for the fiscal year of $441,609.11. Business to the amount of $11,649,863.97 was done by the Pittsburg Steel company this year, an increase of $625,170.39 over last year's business. The net profits for this year were more than double that of the previous year. This year's net profits were $858,160.02 while last year's net profits amounted to $416,609.11.

One of Simultaneous Meetings to Be Held This Evening by Local District at Belle Vernon Church.

The Monongahela valley group of the Baptist Young People's Union of the Pittsburg Baptist Association will hold one of a number of simultaneous group rallies at the Belle Vernon Baptist church this evening. The local group consists of societies of churches from Belle Vernon to Library inclusive. Prof. Martin of Uniontown is to make the address at the Belle Vernon meeting. All rallies will be held in the interest of temperance and temperance addresses will be featured. It is expected a good sized delegation will go from the Charleroi B. Y. P. U.

OFFICIAL RETURN BOARD COMPLETES MAKING COUNT

The official return board, which began a week ago Wednesday on the count of the primary votes, has completed its work. Following the count of the returns for county offices on each ticket, the returns of the townships and boroughs were taken up. The latter was a very tedious job. The commissioners' office will at once prepare slips containing the names of the successful candidates in the 145 precincts, preparatory to getting the information into the hands of the voters of these districts.

CHARLEROI PEOPLE TO ATTEND DONORA MEETING

The Four Cities Luther League association will meet at the Donora Lutheran church this evening. It is expected that a large crowd of the Charleroi leagurers will attend the meeting.

SLAYER OF BRUNO UNCAUGHT; CORONER NOW INVESTIGATING

Washington County Official Takes up Case, Bruno Dying in Local Hospital

JURY SUMMONED FOR INQUEST

Charleroi Men Asked to Serve—Tammuorello Fled Over McMahan [illegible] to Unknown Parts—State Police Working Hard for Clews.

Pietro Tammourello alleged slayer of Gaspiero Bruno at Monessen Thursday morning is still at large and state police and county officers who are searching for him have no trace of his whereabouts. Tammuorello fled over McMahan borough hill back of Monessen, but in which direction he went then is unknown.

Constable A. J. Smith, of Monessen, went farthest in tracing the wanted man. He learned through investigation among people living in McMahan borough that the fugitive after shooting down Bruno struck over the hill. The two state troopers assigned to the case could learn nothing more. There is a theory that Tammuorello is in hiding at the home of a friend back of Monessen awaiting his chance time to get away. In effect his disappearance is similar to that of Antonio Buono, who shot and killed a fellow Italian in a barber shop of McKean avenue, Charleroi a few months ago and got away up Sixth street, Monessen shooting occurred in broad daylight of the early morning, while the Charleroi murder took place in the early evening.

Bruno, after the shooting was carried to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital but died at about the time of arrival there. Because of this, investigation will be conducted partly in this county. Coroner James T. Heffran of Washington county was notified Thursday and the body brought here to the morgue of Lawrence Frye, deputy coroner. Later the body was removed to Bruno's home in Monessen.

Coroner Heffran will conduct an inquest here and turn over the findings of the jury to the Westmoreland county authorities. Jurors drawn to sit in the inquest are: Lute Hutchison, L. R. Walters, Harry Perry, Frank Gibson, William Lambert and [illegible] Barnett.

Opening.

The program for tomorrow will be the Thanhouser drama of two reels, The Bronco, semi-western picture in two reels and a Charlie Chaplin. 92t1

The Domestic Science department will also serve luncheon to the men who participate in the demonstration. The two cornet bands of Ellsworth will furnish music. STOLEN CAR NOT BADLY DAMAGED

Machine Belonging to John Kittle of Speers Brought Home From Pittsburg

ALLEGED THIEVES ESCAPE

In fairly good condition the automobile stolen from the garage of John Kittle at Speers a few days ago was brought home from Pittsburg Thursday by Mr. Kittle, it having been recovered by the Pittsburg police.

Three men were driving on the Northside in the machine, when a motorcycle approached them from behind. According to a woman who was an eyewitness, the three became frightened fearing evidently that the motorcyclist was a police officer. They jumped from the machine and fled precipitately. The woman notified the police, but they were unable to get any trace of the supposed thieves. They located the owner of the car through the number.

Practically all the tools were missing from the tool box, lamps were damaged and the gasoline tank showed dents where the end of a fence rail had been used against it in prying the machine away from a fence into which it was run.

Things are consistent after all. A stomach ache got a man arrested for being drunk here and a headache started a war in Europe.

TRYING TO SCARE MARS

The idea of making War so terrible has always appealed to the fighting fists. They have felt that the machinery of fighting could be made so sufficiently destructive that nations would be afraid of them and individuals would shun the army and navy service from sheer horror.

The latest convert to this doctrine, says the Punxsutawney Spirit, is Henry Ford. He wants to make small and inexpensive submarines so efficient that they could annihilate hostile navies, and bomb-dropping aeroplanes run by wireless which could destroy whole populations. If such sea and air craft were invented, he says, and manufactured in great numbers, they would make war so terrible that there would be no more warfare.

It's an old, old dream. When gunpowder was invented and applied to the firing of bullets and cannon balls, inventors were sure that the destructiveness of this new device would quickly bring the millennium. But gunpowder only multiplied the slaughter.

Ironclad warships were expected to end naval warfare, and they only began it.

When Nobel, founder of the Nobel peace prize, invented dynamite, he was sure that this deadly explosive would make an end of fighting. And dynamite has already killed its millions. It is even killing women and children now, in aerial raids, that have become an endless series of retaliations.

The torpedo was hailed as a war-destroyer, and it merely keyed naval combat to a higher pitch.

Modern rifles, breech-loading cannon, quick-firers, Gatling and Maxim guns, cordite and the other new explosives, Zeppelins and every other improvement in methods of destroying life and property have failed to fulfill their promise.

Fear of death will not stop men from fighting. The war god refuses to be frightened. There is no escaping that conclusion. If we are to have peace, some other principles must be invoked.

Definite action will now have to be taken to make preparation for past mistakes in street improvement. Seventh street's slant in paving makes it an impractical street for heavy traffic in reaching the hill district. The faults of the Third street error, where a part of the grading work has to be done over, are known. Criticism after mistakes are made is futile, and especially is it so at this time. But whatever mistakes have been made within the last few months will serve as a warning. Some of these streets will have to be re-made, but the cost will learn every councilman and citizen to watch things a little closer in the future. And who is to blame if not all of us.

In Monessen a roomer wandered into the room of his host's son and started to shave. This to the son represented an infringement of his rights, since he was complaining of illness. A quarrel was started. Now the son is dead and the other a fugitive from justice. What a silly thing it all was. "We are savages still, civilization has only sharpened our claws," is a saying that still holds true.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"Gracious man!" exclaimed the doctor when Mr. Glubbins called him in a hurry, "Your temperature is rioting along near the danger point, and you—"

"And I'm worse off than I ever was before all through the diet you prescribed."

"Impossible, Mr. Glubbins. I told you distinctly to confine yourself to such food as would be taken by a three-year-old child."

"And didn't I obey orders? I ate apple cores, dog biscuit and ends of burnt matches and scraps of pee ing and everything else I could pick up while no one was looking and here I am pretty nearly dead!"

Hastily reflecting upon the gastronomical tendencies of the average three-year-old child, the doctor told Mr. Glubbins that he had been overdoing the diet and would have to subsist on soft toast and hot water for a week.

The women who called just because they couldn't get out of it was met at the door by the maid.

"My mistress is taking her beauty sleep," she said.

"How long does it take her?" asked one of the women.

"Oh, less than half an hour."

"She looks it," said the other woman in a whisper to her friend. Then they left their cards and trotted away.

MONG THE THEATRES

ALVIN—PITTSBURG

Since his first venture as an actor-manager Mr. William Faversham has been notable for the quality of his productions. It is, therefore, not surprising that he should have the credit for bringing to the American stage what is proclaimed the greatest French play of recent years. Mr. Faversham will bring "The Hawk" for an engagement of one week at the Alvin, opening on October 4. In his new play the actor-manager appears as the Count de Darsetta. Beautiful Miss Julie Opp, who has been absent from the stage for some seasons, will appear with Mr. Faversham, playing the role of Countess Darsetta. For his supporting company Mr. Faversham has engaged a company of players equal in every respect to the famous organizations which have surrounded him in his prior productions.

COYLE—CHARLEROI.

One of the strongest programs as well as one of the most entertaining of the fall season was presented at the Coyle theatre this week. Monday the popular emotional actress Theda Bara enacted the role of Henrietta in "The Two Orphans." Her interpretation of this part was remarkably clever. Two screen favorites Blanche Sweet and Carlyle Blackwell were featured in "Secret Orchard" a Paramount picture which was shown Tuesday. On Wednesday Gail Kane appeared in the leading role of "Her Great Match" a Metro picture. For Thursday the attraction was "Nearly a Lady" a Paramount picture with Elsie Janis, who won many admirer's work in "The Caprices of Kitty," in the leading role. In "Nearly a Lady," Miss Janis was even better than in any of her other pictures. For Saturday a variety program of comedy pictures and one and two part features has been arranged.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

Fresh from the Harris theatre at Pittsburg Millie Stevens and company in "Aunt' Belinda's Legacy" is a pleasing attraction at the Palace theatre the last three days of this week. This act is Manager Barnhart's headliner of three good ones. Real acting is shown by the principals in the cast, showing excellent dramatic ability in their roles. The vaudeville program is being opened by Cliff Marion, comedian, appearing in a new comedy creation, "The Elocution Bug." This is an uproarious skit that is well handled by this couple. The picture program the entire week was good at the Palace. Plans are under way for vaudeville to be featured every day at the Palace beginning October 11.

MAJESTIC—CHARLELROI

To the ordinary mind selecting the biggest feature of all from the week's program at the Majestic theatre would be a task frought with considerable difficulty, but the one drama of all that seemed to contain the most general interest was that of the Wednesday production, "The Man From Oregon," a political drama with Howard Hickman and Claire Williams being featured. Monday's show was a big one, with "Via Wireless" being the strongest production. Tuesday with a five part production, "The Fixer" likewise had a good show. Thursday's two features were "The West Wind" and "The Slavey Student," both Broadway Star features in three parts. Next week one of the biggest drawing cards promises to be that "Trilby" on Thursday with Wilton Lackaye and Clara Kimball Young in the starring roles. "Simon, the Jester" on Monday and "The Committers" on Tuesday will be good dramas.

Huh!

The sucker who had been invited into the quiet little poker game in the back room was getting a good trimming. He kept his eyes peeled, however, and was soon amazed to see the player across the table deliberately deal himself three aces from the bottom of the deck.

"Did you see that?" demanded the sucker as he nudged the player sitting beside him.

"See what?" asked his neighbor.

"That fellow across the table just dealt himself three aces from the bottom of the deck!" exclaimed the indignant sucker.

"Well, what of it?" demanded his neighbor. "It was his deal, wasn't it?"

The war in Europe may worry you a whole lot, but a man with an eight cylinder toothache hasn't time to bother with joking affairs.

When a girl knows that she has pretty dimples a funeral on a rainy day can't keep her from smiling if there is a fellow around.

Father can remember where every team in both big leagues finished in the last seven seasons, and he can remember who was lightweight champion in 1897, and he can remember the breeding of all the stake horses in training, but mother has to make him get up and empty the drip pan under the ice box after he gets into bed every night.

A princess can affect modesty to such an extent that she will blush every time she remembers that she is exposing her naked eye.

Somehow or other they didn't need juvenile courts in the old days when the paddle and the woodshed flourished.

The first baby gets a silver mug, a gold ring, an ivory rattle and about $200 worth of fine baby clothes. But the sixth baby is lucky if it gets two napkins and a ten cent box of cornstarch.

WESTMINSTER TO FACE PITT TEAM TOMORROW

Hard Game Anticipated by Pittsburgers—Many of Last Year's Men Remain On Squad—Herron and Carlson Considered Great Ends.

The University of Pittsburg football team opens its season with the clash Westminster college team at Forbes field. Westminster always has an aggressive fighting team and is expected to give the proteges of Coach Glenn S. Warner a real battle. For years, Westminster has been an early season attraction against the University eleven and usually furnishes a game full of thrills.

The best of the 1914 backfield is available, including Hastings and Miller halfbacks, Williamson and De Hart quarterbacks, and Fry fullback. Hastings is one of the best drop kickers in the country. [illegible] defensive player, whose work enables his team mates in the backfield to make long gains. Fry is a reliable punter and a wonder on defense. Williams is a grand field general. Warner has Peck, Soppitt, Thornhill and Herron and Carlson left from the 1914 varsity. Herron and Carlson are the best pair of ends the University ever had. Herron is from Monessen high school and Carlson from Bellefonte Academy. Both are big and fast and wonders in handling the forward pass. The first big game at home is with the Carlysle Indians at Forbes Field October 16.

Its a pretty good thing something stopped the Germans in their onrush in Russia or they would have been in so deep presently they would have to explore and then blast their way out.

The gas with the "go"

IT'S a good bet that you can knock out more miles with Atlantic Gas. The fellows who use it say it is the liveliest juice on the market. It puts pep in your motor and bowls you along the highway slick as a whistle has a uniform "boiling point" that assures every gallon to be exactly like the last, which puts frequent carburetor troubles in the discard.

Remember, Atlantic Gasoline gives you tremendous power, more miles and more speed. It gives all of this in cold weather as in warm in practically the same degree. So, if you want more service and satisfaction from your gasoline, buy Atlantic—call it by name.

All good garages sell Atlantic Gasoline, and Atlantic trucks and tanks deliver any quantity, anywhere, any time.

Atlantic POLARINE is the lubricating oil that hamstrings Old King Cold. It flows freely at zero. It's a sure preventive of parched cylinder chambers.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. Lawrence, Box , Allyn, Wash.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
